

Csv file shuffler and separate program

This project was done using C++ and visual studio code the main purpose of this C++ desktop application is for shuffling students who are going for an exam in different groups and shuffling them or separating students in different groups and shuffling them so that to spend a lesser time in shuffling of students and grouping them in general

